International Mother Language Day

12th March, 2022

Organized by

Cultural Sub-Committee, Lalbaba College

International Mother Language Day has been celebrated at Lalbaba College every year on 21st February, but in 2022 the college has organized this Memorial Day on 12th March 2022 to give a joyful farewell to the outgoing Governing Body members of the College. "The Music and Dance Club" were heavily involved in this year's programme. This day makes us reflect upon the role of language as the nurturer of culture, as the receptacle of memory, as both engenderer and provider in the true maternal sense.

Members of the Governing body of Lalbaba College attended the Programme. After floral tributes were paid at the altar for Martyrs and a minute's silence was observed as a mark of respect for those who sacrificed their lives to the cause of linguistic emancipation, the inaugural address was delivered by the Principal.

Thereafter, students put up a cultural performance where dance, recitation and singing featured prominently to make the event memorable. The message that language is the mirror of progress and the archive of all things humane rang through all attendees.
