Agomoni

9th October, 2021

Organized by

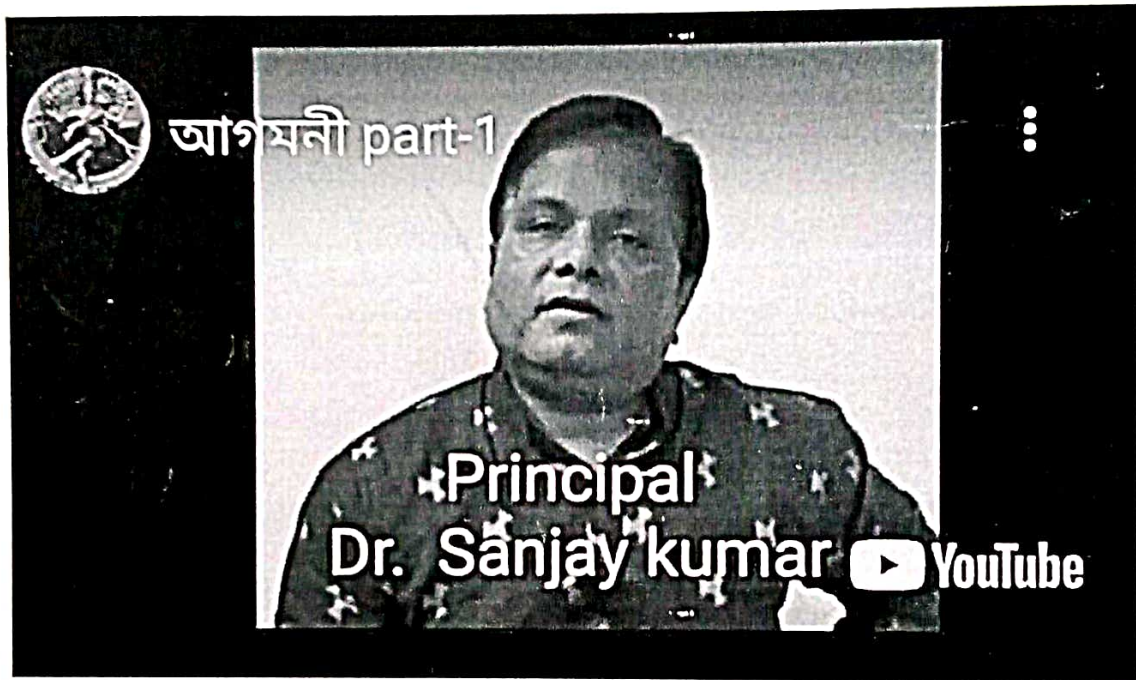

Cultural Sub-Committee, Lalababa College

Bearing in mind all the restrictions imposed by the Government of India to protect the country and its citizens from the Covid19 pandemic, Lalbaba college, Belurmath, decided to conduct the yearly celebration of the Agomoni programme online. With the aid of technology the online meet was scheduled on 'Google meet' at 12 noon on 09/10/2021.

"Agomoni", or the prequel to Durga Puja, that has attained the status of a secular festival of the Bengali people, has been celebrated in our college for four years, as of this year. Replete with instances of the recuperation of cultural memory and a mnemonic resource to younger generations as to our rich cultural legacy, this celebration of "Agomoni" is a tribute to the renewal of life both in nature and the human mind.

Activity Report, Cultural Committee, Lalbaba College

On 09/10/2021, a large number of students logged into the online platform and took part in the curated event. About nine students showcased their skills in dance, singing and recitation. The ceremony was inaugurated by the Principal with his online lecture which was followed by a lecture delivered by the President of the Governing Body. An exciting induction to the Durga Puja festivities this programme, under the stewardship of Prof. Soma Das and Prof. Sanhita Ghosh, both entertained and edified in equal measure.
