Operating Procedure

Any student wants to initiate a grievance may in the first instance bring the issue to the notice of the respective department/office, who will address the issue and try to resolve it within 7 working days of the receipt of the grievance.

If there is no response within the stipulated time from the respective department/office or grievant is dissatisfied with response/resolution to his/her grievance, then the grievant is free to represent his/her grievance to the College Grievance Redressal Committee.

If the grievance is against the respective department/office, then the grievant may directly submit his/her grievance through online in the college website or submit in person in the given format at the Grievance Redressal Committee.

If the Grievance Redressal Committee is not satisfied with the resolution provided by the respective department/office/individual or upon the grievant's written request, the committee shall fix a date for hearing, and intimate the same to the respective department/office/individual as well as the grievant via e-mail. If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the committee feels that additional information, testimony is necessary to make a decision, it may request that the parties submit such additional information. In this event, the hearing will remain open until receipt of the requested documents(s).

If a resolution is not achieved through hearing, then it will take necessary steps to conduct an investigation (fair and impartial investigation) of the facts giving rise to the grievance as it determines necessary to reach a conclusion on the merits of the grievance application. Grievance Redressal Committee will have the right to interview witnesses, if, it determines necessary and/or helpful to the investigation including those recommended by a party to the grievance.

After the hearing or investigation the Grievance Redressal Committee shall use its best efforts to work out a resolution of the issues involved with the parties named in the grievance application – pass an order indicating the reasons for such order, as may be deemed fit.

The complaint shall be considered as disposed off and closed when:
