

Mukto Koro Bhoy:

Awareness Programme on Sexual Harassment of Women at #### Workplace

Date: 23 December, 2022

Venue: Mukta mancha, Lalbaba College

Report Prepared By Mrinal Sarkar

ACTIVITY REPORT

Mukto koro Bhoy was a one day awareness programme about sexual harassment of women at workplace organised by Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), Lalbaba College, in collaboration with Howrah city police. After registration the audience were greeted with an opening song sung by students. Guests were further felicitated with flower bouquet by Kankana Chandra, Department of History, Kritika Pal, Department of Commerce, Sudeshna Das and Tina Nayek from Department of Philosophy. Prof. Debasish Lahiri requested Principal to come upon stage to address the audience. Principal welcomed everyone assembled with warm words. Next distinguished speaker, Sm. Suparna Chakraborty, District Protection Officer, Howrah, Bally Police Station was called upon stage by Prof. Rakesh Mondal to address students. She brought the story of Bhanwari Devi before students. Bhanwari Devi, who was brutally gang raped in 1993, was a social worker in Rajasthan. She also stressed the point that the law was inclusiveness of all, irrespective of sex. Next speaker, advocate Mihir Lal Dutta, legal officer of ICC, Lalbaba College, opined that Supreme Court in its verdict delineated that IPC (Indian Penal Code) was not sufficient to stop the crime of sexual harassment in society. To stop the crime first people must be made aware of sexual harassment. Next Sanjay Kundu, I C Bally Police Station, encouraged students to know the law, and advised students never to suppress any untoward approach from anyone. Later Dr. Barid Baran Ghosh, one of the GB members of Lalbaba College shed light upon the point of prevention – as how such incident might be prevented. Moreover he also urged students to not suppress a truth. After that Prof. Jayasree Boler, Presiding Officer of ICC, Lalbaba College, briefed about the constitution of the committee, and she also added that no harasser not even the Principal is immune to the law. Her speech was followed by prof. Asoka Bhattacharya, speaking about the objectives of empowering women. Anirban Chakraborty, S I, Bally Police Station, the last of the panel of distinguished speakers informed students about 354 of IPC, pertaining to the cases of sexual harassment. He also responded to questions asked in Q/A session:

Question: Prof. Nidhi Chowdhury asked if someone was sexually harassed by someone in Governing Body, who she should approach to register complaint.

Response: 1. Presiding officer of ICC

2. Local police station through 354 IPC.

Question: Prof. Manjur Alam asked if men could lodge complaint of sexual harassment.

Response: yes.

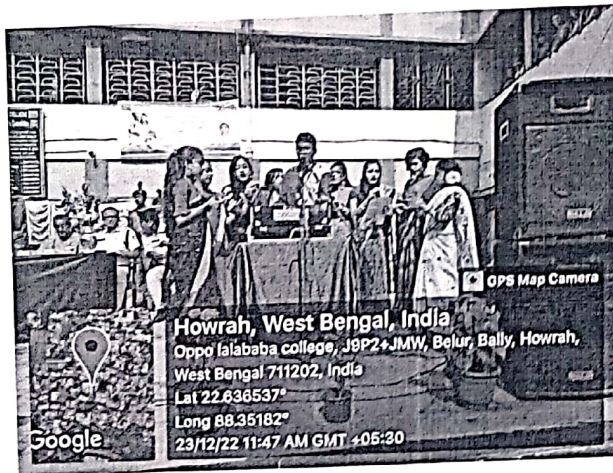

Besides these questions, many students and teachers came up with queries. The programme ended with vote of thanks by Prof. Sanhita Ghosh at 1:30 PM.

Number of Participants:

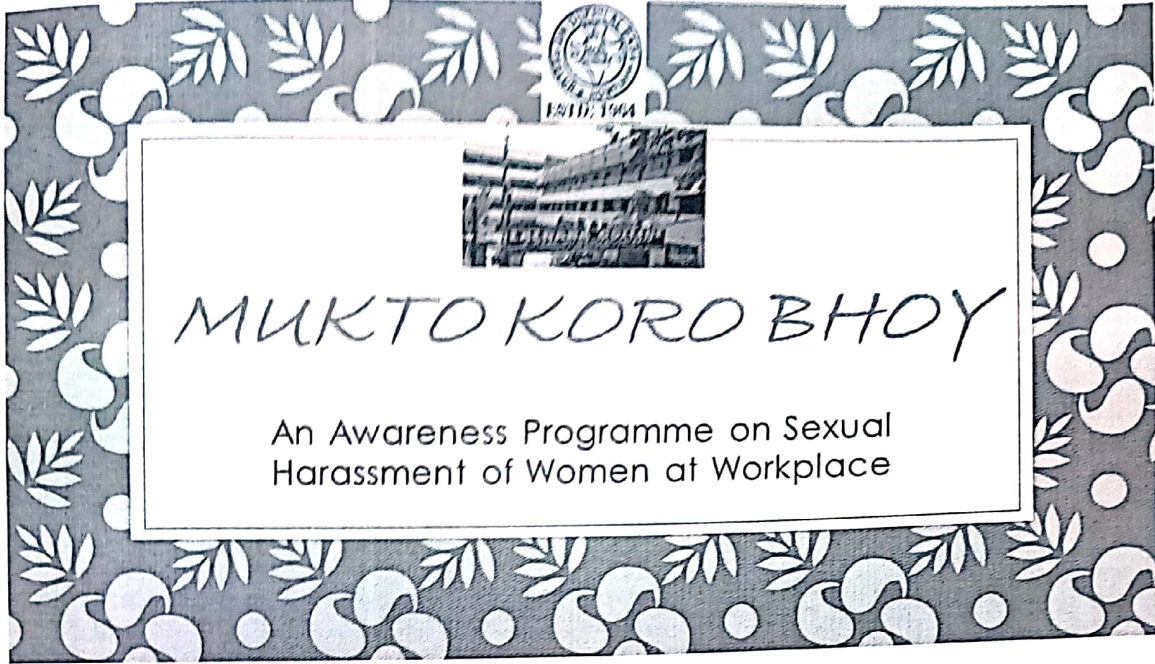

1. Resource Persons – 08
2. Teaching staff – 42
3. Non-teaching Staff – 10
4. Female students – 257
5. Male Students - 191

Objective:

The aim of the programme was to make students aware of sexual harassment and the various ways they might be harassed sexually in educational institutions and workplaces.
